DETAILED ACTION

Response to Arguments

1. Applicant's arguments filed 3/18/05 have been fully considered but they are not persuasive. The applicant submits the prior art does not disclose the following limitations of the claimed invention:

1) the same image capture unit can capture images from both internal camera and the external camera as claimed in claims 1, 7, and 10. The Examiner respectfully disagrees.

Examiner's Reply:

The Bjorner reference discloses the image capture unit (see figure 4, host computer 30) wherein the same image capture unit can capture images from both the internal camera in the buffer (68) and the external camera in the buffer (56). Both the buffers are located in the image capture unit (host computer 30) allowing the image capture unit to captures images from both cameras.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

1. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(e) the invention was described in (1) an application for patent, published under section 122(b), by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent or (2) a patent granted on an application for patent by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent, except that an international application filed under the treaty defined in section 351(a) shall have the effects for purposes of this subsection of an application filed in the United States only if the international application designated the United States and was published under Article 21(2) of such treaty in the English language.

2. Claims 1, 3-7, 9, 10, and 12-14 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(e) as being anticipated by Bjorner et al., US 6,236,735.

In regard to claims 1, 7, and 10, Bjorner et al., US, 6,236,735, discloses an apparatus and process for operating the apparatus comprising:

a machine-vision system comprising an internal camera (see figure 4, element 22 and column 7, lines 20-35: The camera is internal to or part of the machine-vision system) operatively connected to an image capture unit (see figure 4, element 30, column 10, lines 25-29 and column 11, lines 29-35: The host computer contains line buffers 56 and 68 to capture images sent from the cameras), and a digital signal processing unit (see figure 4, element 30 and figures 5 and 7: The host computer's CPU performs the processing for the system); and a camera port connected to the image capture unit (see figure 4, element 54: It is inherent there is a video input port in order for the video signal (54) from the camera 16 to enter the computer), wherein the port is adapted to allow an external camera to be connected to the machine vision system so that the same image capture unit can capture images from both the internal camera and the external camera (see column 12, lines 56-60 and column 14, lines 20-35: The host computer captures images from the internal camera through the video signal line 66 and from the external camera through video line 54).

In regard to claims 3, 9, and 13, Bjorner et al., US, 6,236,735, discloses the apparatus and process of claims 1, 7, and 10, respectively, further comprising a decoder (see figure 4, element 28) connected to the camera port and to the image capture unit (see column 9, lines 45-57: The video processor or decoder is connected to the image capture unit through the camera port of the video signal (54)).

In regard to claims 4 and 14, Bjorner et al., US, 6,236,735, discloses the apparatus of claims 3 and 10, respectively, further comprising an external camera, wherein the external camera outputs an analog signal (see column 9, lines 45-49).

In regard to claims 5 and 11, Bjorner et al., US, 6,236,735, discloses the apparatus of claims 1 and 10, respectively, wherein the internal camera comprises a lens and an image sensor (see column 7, lines 20-24: It is inherent the CCD camera has a lens to focus the light on the image sensor).

In regard to claim 6, Bjorner et al., US, 6,236,735, discloses the apparatus of claim 1, further comprising a memory (see figure 4, element 58).

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

3. The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

4. Claims 2, 8, and 11 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Bjorner et al., US 6,236,735.

In regard to claims 2, 8 and 11, Bjorner et al., US 6,236,735, discloses the apparatus of claims 1 7, and 10, respectively. The Bjorner reference does not disclose that the cameras output a digital signal. Official Notice is taken that it is well known in the art to configure a camera to have an

A/D converter to convert the analog signal to digital. It would have been obvious to one of ordinary skill in the art to configure the system of the Bjorner reference to have the A/D converters in the cameras in order to send a digital signal to the processor.

Conclusion

5. THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the mailing date of this final action.
